

You're coming to the Active+ Paediatric Clinic

This is the outside of the clinic. You will park here.

This is the reception desk. Someone will say “hi” when you arrive.

This is the waiting area. You will wait for your turn here.

You can play with the toys or read a book while you wait!

Before your turn, you need to take off your shoes.

This is the main gym space. You might have your turn in here.

This is Kōwhai. If you're seeing a physio you might have your turn in this room.

There is a bed and a road map rug!

This is Kākāriki. If you're having speech language therapy you might have your turn in this room.

You'll play fun games and practice hard!

This is Karaka, our sensory room.

It is dark with fun lights. You might get to chill out in here during your turn.

We can't wait to see you!
